Mandy Shaw's Essential Stitch Library

Stem Stitch

This is just perfect for outlining, althoughyou might find it's not plain sailing for going around sharp corners.

Start by coming up from the wrong side of the fabric. Work from left to right. Bring the thread up, then put the needle back in, bringing it out a little to the left of the previous stitch, as shown in the diagram above.

Go to dandeliondesigns.co.uk/stitchershub for more of Mandy's stiches, tips, techniques and advice to read and download for free © Copyright Mandy Shaw. For individual use only, please do not copy or share.